

FREE TUTORING

- Degree Up - Students helping students
Academic & Athletics Bldg., Rm E 105
 Degree UP assists students in creating a strong foundation for academic and personal success. Make an appointment at degreeup@sussex.edu or call 973-300-2172
- Library
Library Science Bldg., 2nd Floor
 Math Group Tutoring
 Contact Stephanie Cooper, Library Director
scooper@sussex.edu, 973-300-2162
- Thinkingstorm - Online
 Online tutoring for most subjects is available through THINKINGSTORM and is accessible through your Canvas account. Visit thinkingstorm.com/sussex.
- Writing Center
Student Center, Rm D111
 Tutoring is available in writing for any subject. For online consultation by appointment or Tutoring, visit sussex.edu/writingcenter.

For questions contact,
 Stephanie Cooper,
 Library Director
 973-300-2162
scooper@sussex.edu

Scan the QR code to access the Tutoring page.

TalkCampus App

TalkCampus is a free app you can download from the App Store where you can talk with other students from around the world about a wide range of mental health concerns. TalkCampus is moderated by trained clinicians to maintain safe environment.

Personal Counseling

Get free, confidential, and professional short-term counseling. Students can reduce stress and get referrals to community resources. Visit sussex.edu/personal-counseling.

Dial 988: 988 will become the nationwide 3-digit dialing code for crisis and suicide prevention. When someone calls 988 all phones in the U.S. will connect with the crisis/suicide prevention system.

For more resources:
sussex.edu/student-support

Student Support Learning Resources

Academic Support | Counseling | Free Tutoring

Student Support Resources for Success

Sussex offers many Student Resources on campus to help navigate academic and college information.

Scan the QR code to access the Student Support Resources.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES

Canvas Online Learning

Students will use Canvas Online Learning to complete their course work, view Campus announcements, and more. Download the Canvas app to your phone to stay up-to-date.

sussex.edu/canvas

Degree Up

Academic & Athletics Bldg., Rm E105

Offering peer tutoring, textbook loan, computer access, study buddies, financial assistance, volunteer opportunities, and a comfortable place to study.

sussex.edu/degreeup • 973-300-2172
degreeup@sussex.edu

eCampus Virtual Bookstore

Find and order your required course materials.
sussex.ecampus.com • 859-209-6958
bookstore@ecampus.com

My.Sussex Portal

Visit the Student Portal to view grades, receive unofficial transcripts, register, view courses and financial aid information.
my.sussex.edu

Microsoft Office

Receive a free copy of Microsoft Office (including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint) by visiting microsoft.com/en-us/education/products/office. Enter your Student Email and click Get Started. Follow the instructions sent to your email.

The Writing Center

Student Center, Rm D111

Learn the process of writing a thesis statement, organizing a paper, improving grammar, and using proper citation methods.

sussex.edu/writingcenter • 973-300-2192

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

CASHNet - Pay Online

Visit CASHNet to pay tuition, make a deposit, setup an interest-free payment plan, or receive eRefunds.

sussex.edu/paymentoptions

Regroup Alert System

The Regroup Alert System sends students notifications for College closings and emergencies on campus via text and email. Sign up at sussex.regroup.com.

Sussex App

Download the Sussex App in the App Store or in Google Play to access information on courses, events, online chat, directory and more.

Sussex Student Email

A Student Email address is provided upon registering. This is a student's official means of communicating with professors and receiving important information. Download the Gmail app.

IT HELP DESK

For technical or password issues, please contact itservice@sussex.edu or call 973-300-2333.